

prisoners in the jail; and it shall likewise be his duty to keep a correct and full schedule or statement of all persons committed to the jail, showing the length of time for which they are committed, the offence for which they are committed, and the name of the officer by whom committed, which schedule or statement shall at all times be open to the inspection of the commissioners. For any neglect by the sheriff to comply with any provision of this section, he shall be liable to the fine prescribed in the preceding section.

1884, ch. 242.

37. It shall be the duty of the commissioners, should any balance remain in their hands at the end of any year over and above the expenditures for that year, to deduct such balance from the estimate for the succeeding year, and to make requisition on the county commissioners only for the balance; and it shall likewise be their duty to keep the several accounts for the jail and almshouse, separate and distinct, and to submit in their annual report to the county commissioners separate statements respecting the receipts and disbursements on account of the jail and the almshouse.

BAILIFFS.

1872, ch. 164.

38. The county commissioners shall annually levy upon the assessable property of the county a sum sufficient to pay the bailiffs of the circuit court, and provide for the payment of the same at the end of each term of the court.

BIRDS AND GAME.

1872, ch. 303.

39. It shall not be lawful for any person in Frederick county to shoot, kill, or in any way trap or destroy any blue-bird, swallow, martin, robin, cat-bird, woodpecker, sparrow, wren, whippoorwill, dove, or any insectivorous birds, at any season of the year, under the penalty of two dollars for each bird so killed, taken or destroyed.

Ibid.

40. It shall not be lawful for any person to kill or destroy any pheasant or partridge between the first day of January and the
